the Motion (the “Hearing”); and upon the Declaration of Robert Shapiro in Support of Debtors’ Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings, filed contemporaneously with the Motion, the record of the Hearing and all of the proceedings had before the Court; and the Court having found and determined that the relief sought in the Motion and granted herein is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors, and all parties in interest, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on an interim basis.
2. Until such time as the final order with respect to the Motion is entered by the Court, the Debtors’ utility providers (the “Utility Providers”) are prohibited from altering, refusing or discontinuing service on account of any unpaid prepetition charges, or discriminating against the Debtors, or requiring payment of a deposit or receipt of any other security for continued service as a result of the Debtors’ bankruptcy filings or any outstanding prepetition invoices other than as set forth in the Motion and this Interim Order.
3. Within twenty (20) days after enter of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall deposit $168,000 (the “Adequate Assurance Deposit”) into a newly-created, segregated, interest-bearing bank account (the “Adequate Assurance Account”), which shall be separately allocated for, and payable to, each Utility Provider (whether directly or through the utility aggregators, as applicable) in the amount set forth in the Utility Service List as to each Utility Provider or as otherwise agreed; provided that to the extent any Utility Provider possesses or receives any other value from the Debtors on account of adequate assurance, the Debtors may reduce the Adequate Assurance Deposit maintained in the Adequate Assurance Account for such Utility Provider by such amount.

4. The Debtors (i) are authorized to pay, in the ordinary course of business, any post-petition obligations related to ENGIE’s service fees in accordance with prepetition practice; and (ii) acknowledge and agree that all pre-petition transfers of the Debtors’ funds to the Consolidated Account in order to pay Utility Providers were made in the ordinary course, were not used to pay an antecedent debt owed by the Debtors before the transfers were made, and are not avoidable under the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The Adequate Assurance Deposit attributable to each Utility Provider shall be maintained in the Adequate Assurance Deposit Account until the earlier of (i) the Debtors’ termination of services from such Utility Provider and (ii) the confirmation of a plan of days before Final Hearing, or (ii) in the case of a Subsequently Identified Utility Provider, the date that is fourteen (14) days after the date such Subsequently Identified Utility Provider receives notice (as applicable, the “Additional Assurance Request Deadline”) by serving a request upon the Debtors at the following: (i) RTW Retailwinds, Inc., 330 W. 34th St., 9th Floor, New York, NY 10001, Attn: Marc Schuback and via email at MSchuback@retailwinds.com; and (ii) Cole Schotz P.C., Court Plaza North, 25 Main Street, Hackensack, New Jersey 07602, Attn.: Michael D. Sirota and Ryan T. Jareck and via email at msirota@coleschotz.com and rjareck@coleschotz.com.

- (c) Any Additional Assurance Request must (i) be in writing, (ii) set forth the location for which utility services are provided, (iii) include a summary of the Debtors' payment history relevant to the affected account(s), including any security deposits or other prepayments or assurances previously provided by the Debtors, (iv) describe in sufficient detail the reason(s) why the proposed treatment afforded pursuant to the procedures set forth herein does not constitute satisfactory adequate assurance of payment, and (v) include a proposal for what would constitute adequate assurance from the Debtors, along with an explanation of why such proposal is reasonable.
- (d) If a Utility Provider makes a timely Additional Assurance Request that the Debtors believe is reasonable, the Debtors will be authorized, in their sole discretion, to comply with such request without further order of the Court, and may, in connection with such Additional Assurance Request, provide such Utility Provider with additional adequate assurance of future payment, including, but not limited to, cash deposits, prepayments, and other forms of security, without further order of the Court.
- (e) If the Debtors determine that the Additional Assurance Request is not reasonable and are not able to reach a resolution with the Utility Provider, (i) the Debtors will request that the Court hear such Additional Assurance Request at the Final Hearing, or (ii) if the party making the Additional Assurance Request is a Subsequently Identified Utility Provider whose

Additional Assurance Request Deadline falls after the date of the Final Hearing, the Debtors will schedule a Determination Hearing to determine (x) if additional assurance to such Utility Provider is necessary and, if so, (y) the nature and amount of the adequate assurance to be provided to such Utility Provider

- (f) Pending resolution of a Utility Provider's Additional Assurance Request at the Final Hearing or a Determination Hearing, as the case may be, such Utility Provider will be prohibited from altering, refusing or discontinuing service to the Debtors.
- (g) If a Utility Provider fails to send an Additional Assurance Request by the applicable Additional Assurance Request Deadline, such Utility Provider will have waived its right to make an Additional Assurance Request and will be deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment in accordance with section 366(c)(1)(A)(vi) of the Bankruptcy Code by virtue of the Adequate Assurance Deposit.
- (h) A Utility Provider will be deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment unless and until a future order of this Court is entered requiring further adequate assurance of payment.

10. In accordance with this Order (or other order of this Court), each of the financial institutions at which the Debtors maintain their accounts relating to the payment of the obligations described in the Motion is authorized and directed to (i) receive, process, honor and pay all checks presented for payment and to honor all fund transfer requests made by the Debtors related thereto, to the extent that sufficient funds are on deposit in those accounts and (ii) accept and rely on all representations made by the Debtors with respect to which checks, drafts, wires, or automated clearing house transfers should be honored or dishonored in accordance with this or
